

You are invited to a seminar on
Conservation in Estate Planning
Three Free CLE credits provided

Thursday, May 29th, 2:00 pm – 5:00 pm
Crooked Lake House, Averill Park, New York

Please join us for a free seminar on Conservation in Estate Planning presented by John Lavelle, of Lavelle and Finn, LLP of Albany. John will be discussing the role of conservation in estate planning and strategies such as conservation easements, life estates, purchase of development rights and bargain sales for landowners to consider when planning for the future of their land.

Attendees will receive three Continuing Legal Education (CLE) credits for free. This event is underwritten by a grant from the USDA Forest Service and sponsored by the Rensselaer Plateau Alliance and the Columbia Land Conservancy.

Refreshments will be served

Please contact Marybeth Pettit at 429-8526 or at mbpettit@gmail.com to reserve a seat or for additional information. Seating is limited.

For Directions- <http://www.olddaleyinn.com/weddings/crooked-lake-house/directions/>

Albany Law School Institute of legal studies has been certified by the New York State Legal Education Board as an accredited provider of Continuing Legal Education in the State of New York. This course has been certified as a source of continuing legal education credits for all attorneys in New York State.

For financial hardship guidelines, please call the Institute of Legal Studies at (518)472-5888

