

Do You Love Your Land? And Value Your Woods?

Attend a Free Workshop Series for Landowners

Deciding what will happen to your land may be the most important step you can take as a landowner. Come and explore the possibilities for your land's future and the advantages of planning for it today at the following free workshops:

Woods Forum

7:00 pm, Tuesday, July 16th, Stephentown Town Hall, 26 Grange Hall Road, Stephentown, N Y

Discuss how to care for your woods today and plan for their future. Talk with other landowners, hear about their experiences. Share your questions, concerns and advice. Local conservation and forestry professionals will be available to offer guidance on how to enhance the health of your woods for the enjoyment of your family and introduce ways to promote woodland habitats for wildlife.

Estate Planning Workshop

7:00 pm, Tuesday, August 20th, The Meetinghouse, 14418 Rt. 22, New Lebanon, NY (at the intersection of Routes 20 and 22)

Come get an overview of estate planning from an experienced attorney. This workshop will explore Succession Planning and the human side of estate planning. It will focus on maintaining family ties to the land from generation to generation, building awareness of key issues facing family woodland owners and motivating families to address these challenges.

Refreshments will be served - Please call 429-8526 to reserve a seat or for additional information

These meetings are sponsored by the Rensselaer Plateau Alliance and the Columbia Land Conservancy. This project is funded by a grant from the U.S.D.A. Forest Service
